

CONTINENTAL MARKETS.

THE EFFECT OF EUROPEAN POLITICS ON THEM

Is Singularly Interesting Just Now—Bismarck's Speech Has Not Had the Effect That Was Expected—German Investors Extremely Cautious—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The effect of the uncertain condition of European politics upon the continental stock market is just now singularly interesting. After having for a long time encouraged investments in Russian stock, the government and the leading newspapers of Germany last year set their faces against this kind of security.

Much uncertainty has existed as to whether this opposition was merely a matter of tactics, or was founded upon a sincere conviction, that it was dangerous to hold "Russians." Some persons heeded the warning and sold out, while others disregarded it, and there yet appears to be a good deal of hesitation in the minds of the Germans, who still hold a very large amount of the stock. Certainly Prince Bismarck's speech has not had the reassuring effect that was expected.

It is affirmed that the amount of Russian stock bought by Paris houses when the Germans were selling it last fall was greatly overestimated at the time, but still the French holders are now trying to realize on it. Both in Germany and France, therefore, the distrust of Russian securities is conspicuous.

On the other hand, American railway bonds and stocks have for some time past, as is well known, been taken very freely in Berlin. These have evidently been substituted by investors for the Russian securities which have been disposed of and which there is reason to believe have found their way to a considerable extent back to St. Petersburg.

At present the attitude of German investors is extremely cautious. They fear that war may break out at any time, in spite of the many intimations that peace will be preserved, alternating, as they do, with frequent alarming indications. Hence, there is a disposition to keep money free in the unprofitable form of bank deposits, and the loan market is well supplied.

This abundance of loanable money gives rise to the expectation that the German per cent. government stock will shortly be refunded at a lower rate, and the consequence is an indisposition to buy it at the present price. The supply of money in Berlin is increased also by the considerable amount of gold which has been forwarded to its bankers; thereby the Russian government, whose object in sending it undoubtedly was to sustain Russian credit in the German capital by purchasing Russian stock from time to time, in order to prevent its too conspicuous decline.

Released From Tullamore Jail.

DUBLIN, Feb. 15.—Mr. W. J. Lane, Nationalist member of parliament, who was sentenced to one month's imprisonment under the crimes act, was to-day released from Tullamore jail, where he had been confined. Very few people assembled at the jail and little enthusiasm was manifested.

The Crown Prince.

SAN REMO, Feb. 15.—The crown prince passed a restless night but is sleeping soundly this morning. The patient is free from fever and no bad symptoms of the throat have been noticed. He was forbidden to speak yesterday and made known his wishes by means of signs and writing.

Rowell Challenges Albert.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Rowell, the pedestrian, has challenged Albert, winner of last week's New York walking match, to run six days and nights at Agricultural hall, London, or in America, for $2,500 a side.

The Emperor's Ball Postponed.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—The emperor's ball, announced for to-night, and the guard's fete, which was also to take place to-night, have been countermanded, because of the illness of the crown prince.

The Russian ambassador has conveyed to Bismarck the czar's appreciative acknowledgment of his late speech.

THE SOUTH AMERICAN EXODUS.

Senator B. K. Bruce interviewed on the Subject.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—Senator Blanche K. Bruce, formerly senator from Mississippi but now a resident of this city, was asked his opinion of the proposed negro exodus to South America. He replied:

"There is nothing in the so-called exodus, either to South America or to any other foreign land. The scheme involves two classes, one composed of honest, simple minded men without experience, and without the remotest conception of the magnitude of the venture; the other is composed of sharpers, who think they see in the proposed movement an opportunity to advance their personal fortunes. "Some of the latter class, I am informed, have recently appeared in northern communities as agents soliciting money to carry forward the work. To encourage such men is to put a premium on fraud, and in the estimation of the public, will do an incalculable injury to the colored people of this country."

Cremation Becoming a Necessity.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The rapid rate at which the potter's field on Hart's Island is filling up with the unclaimed dead induced Dr. E. A. McDonald, general superintendent of the insane, to write a letter some time ago to the commissioners of charities and correction describing the unhealthful results of such wholesale burial on the island and recommending cremation of the unknown dead. The letter was turned over to Corporation Counsel Beekman asking him if such cremation would be lawful. Mr. Beekman is now preparing an opinion which will be submitted in a few days.

Cut His Wife's Throat.

XENIA, Ill., Feb. 15.—Lee Furth, a farmer, living fourteen miles southeast of here, recently separated from his wife, and the latter returned to her relations. Yesterday he met his wife on the road near her home, in company with her sister, attacked and overpowered her, and deliberately cut her throat with a razor. The sister escaped. Furth carried the dead body of his wife to a fence corner and then fled. He declared that his wife was receiving the attention of other men.

A Gambler Suicides.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Feb. 15.—Fred Brown, the gambler, took an overdose of morphine in this city yesterday at 1 o'clock and died at 4. Brown is an unmarried man and came to this city about two months ago.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

Archbishop Lamy died at Santa Fe Monday.

Murder Maxwell's father has arrived at St. Louis.

Sam. Williams was drowned in the Chattanooga reservoir.

Oscar Field, the well known turfman, died at Chicago Monday.

Four pioneers of Marion county, Ohio, died in the past two days.

Chattanooga is to have a new Republican daily paper to be known as the Journal.

Lincoln's birthday was generally observed throughout Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Capt. Dick, the Texas train robber, was shot and killed by a sheriff in Trio county, Texas.

Ralph Lee, who tried to kill his stepfather, Banker Lawson, at Chicago, gets eighteen months in jail.

One dollar per 1,000 feet shall be the price of gas to private consumers says the city council of Chicago.

Kellar, Troutman & Company, Logansport, Ind., dry goods dealers, have stopped business for lack of $50,000.

Albert Nichols was pinned to the earth for hours by a falling tree near Newark, O., and died shortly after being released.

At Williamstown, Ky., young Jones shot Mitch Dance, because in a business transaction he said Mitch was not a square Dance.

"Three times and out," remarked Louis Huber, of St. Peter's, Ind., as he bade the world good-by on his third attempt at suicide.

Cornelius Coticippen, Indian brave of Wabash, Ind., is languishing in the chains of his pale faced oppressors for sneaking the contents of a wheat bin.

At Cleveland, O., Monday, Miss Ella Davis was abducted by her father, but she afterward escaped and now lies in a precarious condition from nervous shock.

Mansfield, O., police have orders to arrest all women found on the street at improper hours without proper escort. This will obviate the necessity of arresting the high spirited thugs who make the streets unsafe for respectable women to travel.

The United States supreme court has affirmed a decision of the circuit court of California, which held that a Chinaman returned to China, and having lost his certificate of identification, returned to this country, could not be deprived of his liberty.

Two litigants, Lucas and Church, got tired of waiting for the lawyers, and attempted to settle their little difficulty in a game of hide-and-seek in the Frankfort, Ky., court room. The judge failed to indorse their knock down arguments, and fined them $30 each for contempt.

Anti-Poverty Society Elect Officers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—At the annual election of officers of the Anti-Poverty society last night Dr. McGlynn announced before the voting that, by virtue of his power under the constitution as president, he had appointed several new members of the committee. The George men protested, but the new members voted and formed a majority. The officers who have been loyal to George were deposed, and McGlynnites put in. The new members are mostly members of St. Stephens' parish.

It Was a Genuine Bomb.

NEWARK, O., Feb. 15.—A mysterious explosion occurred in the yard of a man named Kinehart. It was found on investigation to have come from a loaded piece of gas pipe, three feet long. The report was like that of a cannon. Several other sections of gas pipe similarly loaded, have been found in the neighborhood.

Four Hundred Cattle Killed.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 15.—The brakes would not hold on a Lackawanna stock train going down Pocono mountain, and twenty-five cars were thrown off by a sharp curve. Four hundred cattle consigned to New York were killed.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Indications—Fair weather, followed by light snow; colder fresh to brisk winds, shifting to northwesterly.
